WE LOVE LIVING HERE AND WE KNOW YOU WILL TOO!

WELCOME!

Hey friends! I'm Kristen. Your Dallas-Fort Worth Realtor! I have now been a realtor for over 15 years in both Arizona and now Texas. I'm a mom of 4 kids and our family has lived in the Dallas area for over 12 years.

I LOVE working with out-of-state-buyers who find me on YouTube and Instagram that are looking to relocate here to the DFW area. My mission is simple: to help you find the perfect home while making the process fun along the way.

I kept getting the same questions about moving to the area so I knew I needed to create a guide to give you some of the answers! I love what I do and I especially LOVE to make people feel AT HOME! Never hesitate to text, email, call or DM me with any questions you have. I'm here to help make your move as seamless as possible!

This guide highlights some of the top areas around the Dallas Fort-Worth Metroplex, but I have worked all over the DFW area and am happy to help any way I can!

-Kristen

Dallas-Fort Worth is a thriving hub for career opportunities. The Metroplex offers a dynamic job market fueled by diverse industries, including technology, finance, healthcare, and education. The region is home to numerous Fortune 500 companies, providing many employment prospects and competitive salaries. With a strong economy, excellent infrastructure, and a high quality of life, DFW attracts top talent from across the nation. Additionally, the area's low cost of living, vibrant cultural scene, and warm climate make it an ideal place for professionals seeking both career growth and a balanced lifestyle.

DALLAS-FORT WORTH COMMUNITIES

The DFW Metroplex is bigger than most people think. Here in Dallas-Fort Worth, we experienced the largest population growth in the US between July 2022 and July 2023, adding 152,600 residents and surpassing 8 million people.

The majority of the growth has been in the North Dallas area in cities like Frisco, Prosper and Celina, but with the Dallas area being so flat the Metro has been able to grow East, West and South as well. I am going to focus on some of the more popular areas that people ask about, however if you have any questions at all about some of the other areas not listed let me know, because I have had the opportunity to help people buy and sell homes all over DFW.

Frisco, TX Population: 234,424

Frisco, Texas is THE hottest suburb in all of DFW. It's considered one of the best places to live in America and it's no wonder why so many people from all over the US are moving here. Frisco is a family-friendly place to live, and if you're an avid sports fan, then it'll be especially attractive since it's home to the Dallas Cowboys! The city is known for its top notch education system, diverse populations, booming job market, highly-rated restaurants and shopping centers, and all sorts of outdoor parks and recreational options.

Prosper, TX Population: 42,600

Families looking for a close-knit community should consider the growing suburb of Prosper. On the northern border of Frisco, this rapidly growing suburb is home to more than 20,000 people and tons of new construction neighborhoods! Many of these master-planned communities have on-site elementary schools, event lawns, fitness centers, extensive biking trails and they even have one with a big crystal blue lagoon for residents to enjoy year-round and especially during the hot Texas summers! Plus, the Prosper School District is one of the highest rated in the entire DFW metroplex!

Celina, TX Population: 52,073

There's so much to love about the quaint suburb of Celina! All the new construction neighborhoods are HOT here! Celina is located just north of Prosper (20 minutes from Frisco) and is one of the fastest growing suburbs in the entire metroplex. It's got a "know your neighbor" kind of vibe and is a wonderful place for families to put down roots. In Celina, there's a lot less traffic and noise pollution, the cost of living is lower than other popular new construction areas around DFW, and with so much growth happening in the North Dallas area, you're guaranteed to have your home appreciate in value.

Southlake, TX Population: 30,779

Southlake, Texas promises an unparalleled living experience that combines elegance, exclusivity, and a thriving community. Whether you're captivated by the allure of gated communities like Terra Bella or drawn to the picturesque landscapes of Clariden Ranch, Southlake offers a wide array of prestigious subdivisions that cater to your discerning tastes. With top-rated schools, upscale amenities, and proximity to luxurious shopping and dining options, Southlake truly defines luxury living in North Texas.

Colleyville, TX Population: 25,800

The conveniently located suburb of Colleyville is perfect for families who want a peaceful suburban vibe closer to downtown and right between all the amenities and activities of both Dallas and Fort Worth. Home buyers will find spacious ranch and farmhouse style homes on larger lots in established neighborhoods. Enjoy a day at the beautiful tree-covered Sparger Park, which has picnic areas, walking trails, and a sizable playground.

Grapevine, TX Population: 50,631

Nestled between Dallas and Fort Worth, there's a charming blend of history and modern convenience. Known for its vibrant Main Street lined with quaint shops, eateries, and wine tasting rooms, Grapevine proudly wears its title as the "Christmas Capital of Texas," hosting festive events year-round. The city's rich history is evident in its beautifully preserved buildings and landmarks, such as the Grapevine Vintage Railroad and the Palace Arts Center. Grapevine also has great recreational amenities, including scenic parks, lakeside trails, and the expansive Gaylord Texan Resort. Grapevine continues to attract residents and visitors alike, offering a delightful blend of small-town charm and big-city convenience.

Flower Mound, TX Population: 81,270

The charming town of Flower Mound is one of the best Dallas suburbs! Located 29 miles NW of Dallas and 33 miles north of Fort Worth, Flower Mound is famous for its recreation and great quality of life with 680 acres of parks and miles of trails for hiking, biking, and horseback riding. Despite rapid growth over the last twenty years, it still has a small-town, family-oriented environment. Residents enjoy close proximity to jobs and attractions in Dallas and Fort Worth. Grapevine Lake, Heritage Park, the River Walk, and wildflowers that bloom all around town in the springtime are just a few of the many things to love about this sweet town! AND, Flower Mound is regarded as one of the safest places to live in the whole Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Argyle, TX Population: 6,325

Located in Denton County, there's a charming rural feel living in Argyle, yet it's still in close proximity to the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. Known for its picturesque landscapes, horse farms, and spacious estates, Argyle offers a serene retreat from urban hustle. With newer construction communities popping up, the community also hosts local events, farmers' markets, and community gatherings. Known for top-rated schools and a low crime rate, Argyle attracts families and individuals seeking a peaceful yet vibrant lifestyle amidst Texas's scenic countryside.

Coppell, TX Population: 40,925

Coppell, Texas offers residents a perfect blend of suburban tranquility and urban convenience. Known for its top-rated schools, safe neighborhoods, and family-friendly atmosphere, Coppell is a sought-after community for both families and professionals. The city has beautiful parks, recreational facilities, and a quaint downtown area, providing plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities and entertainment. With easy access to major highways and airports, Coppell continues to attract residents who appreciate its high quality of life and strong sense of community.

Plano, TX Population: 291,450

Known for its top-rated schools and safe neighborhoods, Plano is ideal for both families and professionals. The city boasts a vibrant economy with a strong job market, particularly in the tech and finance sectors, thanks to the presence of major corporate headquarters. Residents enjoy a high quality of life with access to numerous parks, recreational facilities, and a diverse range of dining and shopping options. Additionally, Plano's location provides easy access to Dallas and other key cities in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, making it a convenient and desirable place to call home.

Allen, TX Population: 113,644

Known for its welcoming community and family-friendly atmosphere, Allen offers excellent schools, making it an attractive choice for families seeking quality education for their children. With a variety of parks, sports facilities, and entertainment options, Allen provides tons of opportunities for recreation and leisure. The city's thriving economy and growing job market, particularly in retail and technology, contribute to its appeal for professionals. Allen's convenient location near major highways ensures easy access to much of the DFW metroplex, further enhancing its desirability as a place to live.

McKinney, TX Population: 218,846

McKinney is a charming city that offers a high quality of life, making it a wonderful place to live. Known for its picturesque historic downtown, McKinney blends small-town charm with modern amenities. The city is celebrated for its excellent schools, safe neighborhoods, and strong sense of community, making it ideal for families. Residents enjoy a variety of activities, from beautiful parks and nature trails to cultural events and local festivals. With growing job opportunities, particularly in sectors like healthcare and technology, McKinney provides a great environment for both work and play. Its close proximity to highways and other major cities in DFW adds to its appeal yet it is still able to maintain a more serene suburban feel.

RELOCATION EXPERT

As a realtor who has gone through my own relocation journey, there are a lot of things I wish I had known beforehand. I take pride in my ability to help clients with a proven track record of successful transitions to the Dallas-Fort Worth area. You can count on me for a smooth and personalized experience, tailored to meet all your unique relocation needs.

DEDICATED TO EDUCATING FIRST-TIME BUYERS

I am dedicated to empowering first-time home buyers with the knowledge and resources they need to make informed decisions. I provide comprehensive education on the home buying process, helping ensure my clients feel confident and well-prepared.

EXPERIENCED IN GUIDING MOVE-UP SELLERS

With my extensive experience with our real estate market, I specialize in guiding sellers through the complexities of selling their current home and finding their next one. All while making the transition as smooth and seamless as possible.
